My Love is a Shadow

Monica Logan

*You grasp me in your hand, and keep me in your pocket
For fear of losing track
Without me, your world would crumble away*

*I never complain
Nor sigh at your laziness
When you use and abuse me*

*Even if you do forget my presence
The moment I move
You run to me*

*The gazes and glares I receive
Only tie you to me
And make you fall*

*The Helena in a dream
You see me as Demetrius
Your one and only*

*But, as you truly do not know me
I must remain as close to you as the sun
That lightens the day, but darkens your sight*

*Do you miss me yet?
Do you miss the moon,
Lighting your path in the dark?*

*Is it really that hard without me?
Can you see anything outside yourself?
Or do you hear just your hollow, echoed replies?*

*Oh, I see now, I see who you think I am
Not a lackey or a jockey, just a horse,
Worse than your slave*

Which is nothing more than I am

My world depends on you,

My Hermia

How could I have lived this way?

Do you see how much I need you?

Without you, I'm just a piece of plastic without a soul

Like a shadow you can never grasp,

My love will follow you always

Being your beloved and blue cell phone
