Face to Face

Zeke Fetrow

Indeed she was there.
A child,
A most gracious child.
For in her eyes shown life everlasting.
In her eyes, I saw a beautiful story.
I saw the sunrise and wept.
I saw the mountains and mourned.
I saw life and am compelled to tell the world,
Hope is alive.
Breathing,
And believing.
Just as she stood before me,
I stood before it.
Face to face with hope.
If I should stop believing for even a moment,
She should vanish.
Should I never again see her,
My comfort lies in knowing
That out there somewhere is a child with a compass on her heart,
Proving that not all hope is lost.
