Shaw: Looking at Myself
Looking at Myself

Cassandra Shaw

The eyes staring back are in two different places, head scattered around the edge of the mirror.

Body and mind are disconnected,
at the throat,
leaning toward one another but not quite there.

The separated eyes wander to the square torso on the right,
stick legs on the left,
feet separated by a third foot of space.

The body is whole and yet scattered.
The illusion of function I can't live without.
