I RAISE MY HAND

Craig Baxter

How many generations have to suffer, how many have to bleed?
Why can't our generation be the one to plant the seed?
Why do we dance in the moonlight and play upon the sun?
Why is everyone always miserable, even though they're having fun?
What do people think when they see a flower bloom?
Then find out that that flower is ultimately doomed?
What is the reason for warm love, if most of us feel cold?
When can we come together and forget the lies we're told?
Why is everything take, take, take, but always at a loss?
Why can't we see the vision, he left there on the cross?
