The Foot

As I walked on a journey my foot
cried out,

“Do not walk on me! It is tiresome!”

I replied, “Will you not stay part of me?”

“Yes, of course!”

“What shall I use you for then?”

Will you taste for me?”

“...No.”

“Will you breath for me?”

“...No.”

“Will you think for me?”

“...No.”

“What will you do?”

There was no reply.

“Then my dear foot”, I said,

“I suggest you continue walking.”
