Iris

Funny little, forty-year-old, sad little girl.
You did all the right things, so, where's your happy world? Were you led to believe there's a guarantee you'd be grown up and free if you did the right things?
Children and housework and making a home...
No time for song, so time for a poem.
Now you're sitting alone with a cry and a moan.
You did all the right things.
You did all the right things!
