Dominique Donald

The following poem is an excerpt from Dominique's senior thesis "Unapologetically Woman." To read more, please visit commons.cu-portland.edu/engtheses.

I fear you,

Though I bask in your richness.
You dance with me and I feel beautiful.
When ribs peek through thin clothing

I invoke you
To play within my weak eyes.
I invite you
To mask my hunger, thirst

I love you.
